

FUTURE FEMALES – Leadership and Management Development Programme

The 'Future Females' Leadership and Management Development Programme is a new and innovative 8 week programme specifically for female leaders and female managers who are looking to develop their management and leadership skills. (Due to Covid-19 this course will be delivered online)

This programme is suitable for team leaders, middle managers and also entrepreneurs, and this qualification is ideal if you have management responsibilities but no formal training and are serious about developing your abilities and your business.

It is particularly suited to team leaders and middle managers seeking to move up to the next level of management, and also managers who need to lead people through organisational change and a wide range or other challenges.

The programme has 3 parts:

- Part 1 – Leadership and Management Training
  - Training Modules / Workshop Topics Include
    - Programme induction
    - Understanding leadership
    - Understanding how to motivate to improve performance
    - Understand the organisation and its context
    - Verbal and non-verbal communication
- Part 2 – Change and Improvement Project
  - Examine a problem in the workplace and develop a plan to improve the situation
  - This encourages them to put their new management and leadership skills into practice
- Part 3 – Personal Career Development Plan
  - The Personal Career Development Plan will help you develop a clear action plan for upskilling in line with your career goals, including progression routes and courses

Qualification

On successful completion of the programme you will achieve the ILM Level 3 Award in Leadership and Management.
