“That this Council officially takes on the ownership of Edward Street Social Centre and that, as finance permits, it carries out remedial work to bring it up to a standard that complies with health and safety and building regulations, enhancing its kitchen, toilet facilities, heating and interior. That Council continues to run the facility in the same manner it has over the past 34 years.”

13. Notice of Motion proposed by Councillor Holmes, seconded by Alderman McKeown

“Council requests that Officers conduct a feasibility study on establishing a Council Owned Company (COCO) to operate and run the caravan park estates and report back to Council within three months.”

FOR CONFIDENTIAL CONSIDERATION (Items 14 - 17 Inclusive)

14. Notice of Motion proposed by Councillor P McShane, seconded by Councillor C McShane

“That this council under the access order have a duty to assert and protect all Public Right of Way (PROW) within the Borough. It is our belief that the National Trust have erected signs at parts of the World Heritage Site that could mislead the public into believing they (the public) do not a right of way to walk some of the most iconic parts of the site. We request this council under the access order fulfil their statutory duty, investigate and assert the PROW throughout the World Heritage Site.”
